

Retainership Description

Position: Senior Associate

Metalegal Advocates is looking forward to engaging and retaining a Senior Associate (Advocate) for our practice in corporate and commercial laws.

For information about Metalegal Advocates, please visit www.metalegal.in

Qualification

The candidate should be a qualified advocate (LLB), desirably having a PQE of 3-4 years, with a passion for learning and practicing a variety of laws, and excellent communication skills, and having experience of client management.

Engagement profile

The engagement would primarily involve advising the clients on various corporate and commercial laws, technology laws, regulatory laws, client management, handholding the clients in various dispute resolution processes, litigations (including drafting pleadings, replies, appeals, petitions etc. before various forums), handling investigations involving multiple agencies, researching, and writing articles/white papers, etc. There would be opportunities to represent the clients before various forums from time to time and based on experience in the case as well as law.

The fees would be as per professional standards.

Location

New Delhi, at our office situated in Jangpura Extension.